In the following resource guide, learn about the financial assistance options for senior care and senior living in your state, what benefits the different programs offer, who is eligible, and how to apply.

Financial Assistance for Senior Living & Senior Care

According to CNBC, the average price of long-term care rose by 12.5% between 2020 and 2021. With the cost of living also rising, it might feel like senior care is unaffordable for many people.

In Minnesota, there are plenty of programs available to older adults to help cover the costs associated with at-home care or assisted living.

Medicaid

Medicaid is referred to as Medical Assistance in Minnesota, and the Minnesota Department of Human Services oversees the program. Low income or very low income seniors can get help to pay for health care insurance from the county, state and federal government.

MA can help older Minnesotans cover the costs of a range of long-term care services. It covers home care, nursing homes and some prescriptions, but you might need to complete an application before becoming eligible. While there are no copays or deductibles for people living in nursing homes, other seniors might have to pay a small contribution toward their care.

How To Apply

To apply for Medical Assistance, you can take the following steps:

- Download a Minnesota Medicaid application.
- Take the completed application in person or mail it to your local county or tribal DHS office.
- There's also the option to phone (651) 431-2670 or (800) 657-3739 and request they send an application by mail.
- If you need help making an application for MA, call your county or tribal office or the Senior LinkAge Line at (800) 333-2433.

Eligibility

To access help paying for long-term care from MA, you need to meet specific income criteria. You must also:

- Be a resident of Minnesota
- Have U.S. citizenship, permanent residency or qualifying alien status
- Be age 65 or older
- Have a Social Security number

If you're under 65 and meet the following criteria, you may qualify for financial assistance from MA to help cover the costs of long-term care:

- You're blind
- You're disabled
- Someone in your household has a disability
- You're responsible for a child aged 18 or younger

There are asset limits in place to determine financial eligibility. As of May 2022, they are as follows:

Individual	Married Couple Applying Together
$3,000	$6,000

Income limits are dependent on the size of your household. In May 2022, they are:

Family Size	Annual Income Limit
1	$18,075
2	$24,353
3	$30,630
4	$36,908
5	$43,186

Health Insurance & Prescription Drug Coverage for Seniors

Medicaid

Medical Assistance is a federally-operated health care insurance plan for people with a very low income. While you're not required to pay a monthly premium for this service, there are usually small copays and deductibles, although some seniors won't pay anything for care.

Covered services include limited dental care, doctor visits, hospital stays, eyeglasses, hearing aids, mental health care and a wide range of other essential health care services.

How To Apply

If you're applying for multiple family members with differing ages, or you're under 65, apply for Medicaid through MNsure. If you're under 65 and have a disability, or you're over 65, you should:

- Print an application form.
- Call or visit your tribal or county DHS office (you can also get assistance from your local DHS office, or call the Senior LinkAge Line at 800-333-2433).
- Phone (800) 657-3739 or (651) 431-2670 to request a paper application form in the mail .

Eligibility

Minnesota residents who are over 65 or who have certain disabilities are eligible for MA health care coverage. There are also asset and income limits, which vary depending on your age, disability status, family size and required level of care.

For single people, the asset limit is $3,000, and for married couples it's $6,000, with an additional $200 per dependent. Assets typically don't include the property you live in or your car, and retirement accounts may be regarded differently compared to other assets. For most people, the only costs of care are copays, but you might have to pay a spenddown if you're over the income limit.

Income limits are currently set at 100% of the federal poverty guideline, which are as follows:

Family Size	Monthly Income Limit*
2	$1,527
3	$1,921
4	$2,315
5	$2,709

*Figures are accurate as of May 2022. Check current guidelines for up-to-date information.

Medicare

Original Medicare consists of Part A, which covers services provided on an inpatient basis, and Part B, which covers outpatient services. For example, Part A covers nursing care provided during a hospital stay, while Part B covers things like doctor visits and durable medical equipment.

How to Apply

To apply for Medicare online, visit the Social Security Administration website and fill out the form. You can also apply by telephone or in person. Call (800) 772-1213 to speak with a representative or use the online locator to find a Social Security office near you.

Eligibility

To receive Medicare benefits, you must be at least 65 years old or have a qualifying disability or end-stage renal disease. Everyone pays a premium for Part B, but you may qualify for premium-free Part A coverage if you or your spouse worked and paid Medicare taxes for at least 10 years.

Medicare Advantage

Original Medicare is managed by the federal government, but Medicare Advantage Plans are sold by private insurance companies. Each plan must offer at least the same amount of coverage as Original Medicare, but many insurers offer extra benefits to make their plans more attractive to consumers.

How to Apply

Use the Find a Medicare Plan tool on Medicare.gov to compare Medicare Advantage Plans in your state. When you're ready to enroll, call (800) 633-4227 or contact the plan provider directly.

Eligibility

If you're eligible for Original Medicare, you are likely eligible for Medicare Advantage; however, confirm eligibility requirements with the plan provider.

Medicare Part D

Original Medicare doesn't cover most prescription drugs, so you may want to enroll in Medicare Part D, a supplemental plan that pays for a wide range of medications. Each plan has a formulary that explains how much coverage is provided for each type of drug. Most Medicare Advantage Plans include prescription drug coverage, and you can't enroll in Medicare Part D if you have a Medicare Advantage Plan that pays for prescription medications.

How to Apply

Use the Find a Medicare Plan tool on Medicare.gov to find a plan that meets your needs. When you're ready to enroll, contact the plan directly for instructions on applying for coverage.

Eligibility

To qualify for Medicare Part D, you must be enrolled in Medicare Part A and Medicare Part B (Original Medicare) or one of the few Medicare Advantage Plans that doesn't cover prescription drugs.

Medicare Savings Programs

Medicare Savings Programs are available to older Minnesotans who need a little help covering Medicare copays, deductibles and other out-of-pocket costs. There are four in Minnesota:

- Qualified Medicare Beneficiary Program: This MSP helps pay for Medicare Part A/Part B premiums, Part A/Part B deductibles and Part A/Part B coinsurance.
